Payment Terms and Conditions

Tuition/boarding fees are set as an annual fee and are payable in four equal instalments at the start of Terms 1, 2, 3 and 4. Fees for all students are billed prior to the commencement and are due for payment on the last day of Week 1 of that term. Alternately, arrangements on either a monthly or twice-monthly basis, as outlined in the Business Practices Summary.

Method of Payment of School Fees

Payment of school fees may be made by the following means:

- cash
- cheque
- credit card (VISA and Mastercard)
- direct deposit EFTPOS
- online banking into the school account
- direct debit

Please note that payments made by credit card will attract a 2% credit card surcharge.

Fahan School has a Board-endorsed policy for collection of overdue accounts, which includes charging interest on overdue accounts and referral to legal representatives for debt recovery action. Students will be denied the opportunity to participate in interstate and /or overseas trips if their account is in arrears and their place at Fahan put in jeopardy.

Further details are provided on the Business Practices Summary sheet.

Related Charges 2013

In addition to the approved tuition and boarding fees, levies* will apply to students' accounts as and where applicable. These include the annual subject and non subject levies as well as elective levies from Year 9 onwards and are added to your Term 1 account.

* Interstate and international excursion fees are not included in the fees/levies and are billed separately.

Additional Charges

Extracurricular Activities

Student elected activities such as rowing, sailing and individual music tuition attract extra charges as determined on an annual basis. Individual music tuition is charged directly by the music tutor. Instrument hire is billed each term and is added to term fees.

School Uniforms

Fahan School has a strict uniform policy. All students are required to be in correct uniforms at all times. A summary of approximate new uniform costs for students commencing in the various year levels is outlined below.
